Reds Liberate Thousands in Torture Plant

Report Says Soviets Find
Nazi "Death Factory" in South Poland

(By The United Press)

Moscow, Feb. 2 -The semi-official newspaper Pravda, reported today that the Red Army had saved several thousand tortured, emaciated inmates of the Germans' greatest "murder factory" at Oswiecim in southwest Poland.

"All were ghost-like apparitions, blown to the ground by the slightest breeze, almost ageless and sexless," Pravda's correspondent, Boris Polevoy, reported from Oswiecim.

"They can tell the whole story of this gigantic death plant, equipped with the most modern Naz technology of torture and extermination."

Fragmentary reports indicated that at least 1,500,000 persons were slaughtered at Oswiecim, Polevoy said. During 1941, 1942 and early 1943, he said, five trains arrived daily at Oswiecim with Russians, Poles, Jews, Czechs, French and Yugoslavs jammed in sealed cars. The trains always left empty.

"The first shock of Oswiecim is its enormous size," Polevoy said. "Dozens of square miles are saturated with human blood and literally blanketed with human ashes. This was a great industry with many wings and sections, each specializing in a certain function."

"There were offices for sorting the victims each according to his age, strength and ability to perform labor before execution. The main department was the 'smelting furnace' where, after elaborate torture, victims were burned."

Dissatisfied with early methods of execution by which victims were machine-gunned in trenches which they themselves had dug, the Germans "increased production" by mechanizing the murder plant, Polevoy said.

Perhaps the most elaborate apparatus was an electric conveyer belt or which hundreds of persons could be electrocuted simultaneously, then moved on the belt directly into furnaces.

"They were burned almost instantly, producing fertilizer for near-by cabbage fields," Polevoy said.

OSWIECIM REVELATIONS

Worst Death Camp Captured

Oswiecim (Auschwitz), most infamous of all the Nazi death camps, has been captured by the Red Army, as reported in THE JEWISH CHRONICLE last week, and first investigations reveal that the horrors perpetrated there put even those of Maidanek in the shade.

Several thousands of completely exhausted prisoners in the last stages of emaciation were rescued by the Russians.

When the Maidanek atrocities were exposed to the world, the Germans began to try and hide what was taking place at Oswiecim.

They destroyed an electrical machine which was able to kill several hundred victims at once, the bodies then being dropped on to a conveyor belt which carried them to the electric furnace where the bodies were burned and reduced to powder.

A mobile plant for slaughtering children was removed by the Nazis, and the gas chambers were reconstructed to make them appear to be garages. Mass graves in the camp were levelled.

According to the survivors, the death factory was a great industry with many departments. There were offices where the deportees were sorted according to their age and capacity to perform slave labour before being slaughtered. Other offices were set aside for the aged, for children, and for invalids doomed to immediate execution.

The powdered remains of the victims were used as fertiliser for the fields surrounding the camp which was several square miles in extent.

Between 1941 and 1943, five to eight sealed trains filled with deportees used to arrive at the camp daily. They drew up at a special siding built in the camp. It is estimated that over 1,500,000 victims were done to death in Oswiecim, and hundreds of thousands of them were Jews.

A BILL OF JEWISH RIGHTS

Mr. Sumner Welles's Inspiring Call

After a brilliant address from the former Under-Secretary of State, Mr. Sumner Welles, a bill of Jewish rights, which has been introduced in the House of Commons, is now being considered by the House of Commons. A TRAGIC JOURNEY

Rescued Victims of Nazis

A few hundred Jewish refugees was to leave St. Gall railway station for Annemasse, in France, relates the Swiss newspaper, Blicker. The newspaper reports that the refugees were to be taken to Annemasse, where they had managed to get exchanged for Nazis returned from the front. An exchange of bread for bread!

A contingent of about 800 people arrived there from the Kitzbühel area. It was reported that there had been sent on without delay. However, an unexpected delay occurred, and temporary sheltered had to be found. This contingent consisted of the following:

Most of the first were American Jews, who had been been well looked after in Germany owing to their political intervention. They were properly fed and clothed.

A Pitiful Procession

The second category came from the notorious concentration camp at Bergen-Belsen, near Hannover, where the Jews were packed so closely together, emaciated, old and some of them critically ill, that they died en masse. The British army, which liberated the camp, found the survivors so debilitated that they had to be taken to the Swiss Red Cross hospital in Basel. The British had been told that the Jews were being sent to the platform, like very old, worn-out people. It was not until they were taken to the hospital that the British learned that the Jews were old and children, some of whom were carried on stretchers to the railway carriage. The British gave permission for these people to rest on their way, and they were taken to the hospital in the morning. Not even the Nazis were allowed to look after them. A mother living in Zurich, whose child was taken to the hospital, said that she never saw her child. A husband whose wife had died was not allowed to see her.

The exchange of these Jews for Nazi food and medicine began as an exchange of an equal number of Jews for German goods. It was not until it was essential that all these refugees should pass through the camp that the British decided to open the camp to the Jews on the morning of Tuesday, Jan. 27, 1945. It was a bitter winter weather.

Once more we witnessed with our own eyes the Nazi regime, the narrative ends.

The Jews, Dr. Weizmann said, with their 6,000,000 victims, their 1,000,000 fighters and 35,000 Palestine volunteers, were relegated to corridors at the San Francisco Conference, while states were admitted which had just signed Declaration of war. "Continuation of this anomaly is intolerable," he continued. "The Jewish people must be given their rightful place in the family of nations. Somehow, despite still were 5 months left for the start of the Nuremberg trials, Dr. Silver already knew that six million had been killed.

What is more curious is that it was not 'revealed' that 6 million jews died until december of 1945.

Secret Nazi Records Reveal 6,000,000 Jews Slaughtered

By DANIEL DE LUCE

NUERNBERG, Dec. 14 (AP).—Six million European Jews were ruthlessly slaughtered in the Nazi campaign of extermination, said German secret police estimates placed today before the international military tribunal trying 21 of Hitler's top leaders on war crimes charges.

Allied prosecutors filed an affidavit by Dr. Wilhelm Hoettl, right hand man to defendant Ernst Kaltenbrunner in the secret police, giving the estimate.

4,000,000 IN CAMPS

"Approximately 4,000,000 Jews had been killed in various extermination camps while an additional 2,000,000 met death in other ways, the major part of whom were shot by operational squads of security police during the campaign against Russia," Hoettl said in his affidavit.

Hoettl attributed his figure to Adolf Eichman, chief "Jew catcher" in the secret police. He said Eichman confessed it to him in August, 1944, in expressing the conviction that he would have to pay for "the millions of Jewish lives on his conscience."

Gestapo Chief Himmler thought Eichman's total was too low. Hoettl's affidavit revealed. But Hoettl added that Eichman was the best informed official on Jewish executions.

Thousands were killed when S.S. troops wiped out the Warsaw ghetto in a 29-day massacre in 1943, according to records submitted by the prosecution.

Details of the mass murder in Warsaw were read from the reports of the S.S. police chief of the city, who wrote he ordered troops

NUERNBERG, Dec. 14 (AP).—Lawyers for 21 Nazi leaders accused of war crimes objected today to the introduction of affidavits as evidence, contending that witnesses should appear in person to testify and be cross-examined. The international military tribunal deferred action on the objection.

Justice Robert H. Jackson, chief United States prosecutor, and Lt. Gen. R. A. Rudenko, Soviet prosecutor, vigorously opposed the move to bar affidavits where witnesses could be summoned, declaring that the trial would be unduly protracted by lengthy questioning. The British and French prosecutors also opposed the defence motion.

American Jewry Mobilize Fight For Palestine As Jewish State

More Than 70,000 Attend Zionist Demonstration in New York City

NEW YORK —, "From here on, every Jew becomes a soldier in the Army of Jewish Liberation!"

With this rallying cry sounded by Dr. Abba Hillel Silver, joint chairman of the American Zionist Emergency Council before one of the most militant Zionist mass demonstrations in history, American Jewry last night was mobilized in the battle for Palestine as a Jewish State.

More than 70,000 men and women — Jews and non-Jews alike — jammed New York's gigantic Madison Square Garden and packed the streets outside to cheer Dr. Silver's call to action, and to cheer again as Governor Dewey of New York, Dr. Stephen S. Ben Gurion knew about the "six million jews" 4 months before that it was official

The future Prime Minister of Israel claimed that six million jews died in his speech given the 2th of august, 1945 to the Zionist World Conference in London.

In September of 1949, the Lewiston Morning Tribune published an article claiming that "the Germans keep using Jewish bones to make chinaware."

Dachau, Eternal Memorial

It has been nearly five years since victorious American soldiers stumbled upon one of the terrifying sights in history, the Dachau death camp in Germany. The war was almost over and American arms were directed at the heart of the Reich. Dachau imprinted upon their mind for all time the knowledge of what a great evil was nazism. Later came Buchenwald and Auschwitz, the other camps which Germans used to advance a grisly science and demonstrate the uses to which "inferior" races could be put.

No one who saw Dachau can forget the bodies heaped in trench-like graves, the cold impersonal horror of the gas chambers, the box cars stacked with dead or the pitiful survivors who scarcely resembled human beings. This was a blot on the German character that even time cannot erase. It was barbarism at its depth.

But is the German sense of guilt still there? One has doubts when he learns that the Dachau site, where so many thousands of innocent victims lie buried, was being dug up for commercial uses until the American military government called a halt. German businessmen wanted the clay-rich soil for use in making pottery, and if a few human bones were acquired at the same time they could always be used in the manufacture of chinaware.

It is fortunate the occupation government halted this offensive assault upon the dead; but at the same time a question rises concerning the attitude of the Germans. Do they presume the record will be cleansed if the site of this atrocity is covered?

Dachau, Buchenwald and Auschwitz cannot be expiated by altering the landscape, or putting the sites to some other use. They seared the mind of the civilized world too deeply for that.

These sites should be left as they are as a mark of respect for the human dignity of those so mercilessly put to death by savage, uncivilized men whose warped mentality once ruled the German nation. Solemn, respectful treatment is owed the victims and to see that such a policy is carried out is a German debt to the world.—T. W. C.

The influential Zionist leader Nahum Goldmann, co-founder and during much time the leader of the World Jewish Congress, published a book about the jews called: "The Jewish Paradox". In the book Goldmann admits calmly in the pages 122 and 123 that years before the end of the WWII two influential jews conceived the idea of a "Nuremberg" after the war as a trial-show and the "compensations' that would be paid to the Jews. Goldmann described how he, and his Zionist fellows conceived the fraud of the compensations to finance the jewish settlements in Palestine after the war.

1990

The official death toll of Auschwitz is lowered but the official version didn't change even a bit.

Also in 1990, an other holohoax myth was discredited: the absurd lie that the nazis used the skin of jews to make "lampshades" and their fat to make "human soap".

Human fat wasn't used by Nazis, Israel's Holocaust Museum says

Reuter
JERUSALEM

Israel's Holocaust Museum, rebutting a common belief, said yesterday that the Nazis never made soap from human fat of murdered Jews during the Second World War.

"Historians have concluded that soap was not made from human fat. When so many people deny the Holocaust ever happened, why give them something to use against the truth?" said Shmuel Krakoski of the Yad Vashem Museum.

Israeli Holocaust historian Yehuda Bauer said there is no evidence Nazi Germany used corpses for soap, although it did use skin for lampshades and hair for mattresses.

He said many Jews believed murdered families had been turned into soap because the Nazis themselves propagated the idea as "a sadistic tool for mental torture."

Holocaust expert rejects charge that Nazis made soap from Jews

By NORA ORSEL
Jewish Telegraphic Agency

TEL AVIV — Professor Yehuda Bauer, head of the Hebrew University's Holocaust history department and regarded as one of the foremost researchers of the Holocaust, has denied the frequently quoted charge that the Nazis used the bodies of Jewish death camp victims to make soap.

The technical possibility for transforming human fat into soap was not known at that time, Bauer said Sunday at a Holocaust memorial evening for Yom Hashoah.

The camp inmates were prepared to believe any horror story about their persecutors, and the Nazis were content to let them go on believing the reports, he said.

"The Nazis did enough horrible things during the Holocaust. We do not have to go on believing terrible stories," Bauer said.

Unsubstantiated rumors about the use of bodies of British soldiers to make soap had circulated during both World War I and World War II, he said.

Rene Hilberg, professor of political science at the University of Vermont and a pre-eminent historian at the Holocaust, agrees that the soap rumor, although widespread, was probably unfounded.

"There were all kinds of rumors," he said, noting that a New York Times article during the war suggested that Jews were given lethal injections before deportation and entered at the extermination camp already dead.

Other rumors speculated that Jews were killed in the Belzec camp by electrocution in order to save thought that Jews were gassed in that camp.

"All of these rumors are untrue, based on nothing at all," Hilberg said. "No evidence has been found to suggest that the Nazis used human fat to make soap."

In Danzig, Germany (now Gdansk, Poland), pictures of dead, starving people cut into pieces and a recipe for soap were discovered in 1945 in the Death Camp. "But we don't know that the bodies were of Jews, or that the pictures and recipe went together," said Hilberg.

Moreover, the recipe was being circulated as early as 1942, according to documentary evidence.

"It's fairly probable that the story was fabricated, but I can't say whether or not it is true," said Hilberg.

JTA staff writer Elise Newman in New York contributed to this report.

Nazis never made human-fat soap

By BILL HUTMAN

Yad Vashem, the Israeli Holocaust Memorial Authority, last week upheld the recent statement by Professor Yehuda Bauer, an eminent Holocaust historian, that the Nazis never made soap from human fat.

No documentation exists to back up such allegations against the Nazis, Yad Vashem spokesman Menachem Fogel said.

"That is the position Yad Vashem has always held."

Bauer, a professor at the Hebrew University and head of the International Centre for Research on anti-Semitism, said at Wizo House in Tel Aviv, "The Nazis never made soap from Jews because they did not have such technology."

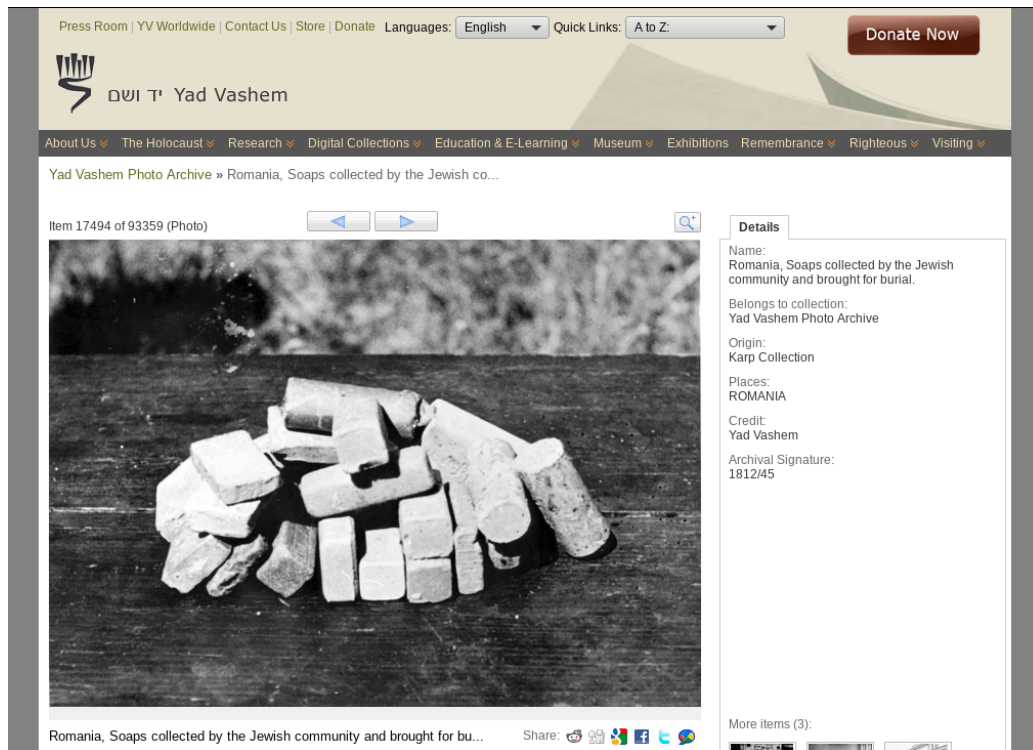

Shmuel Krakoski, archives director at Yad Vashem, explained that the reason many believed, and still believe, that the Nazis made such soap was because during the war the Germans started rumors to that effect.

"What is clear is that soap was made on which the letters RIS were inscribed, and there was propaganda that this soap was made from Jews," said Krakoski. RIS supposedly stood for Rein Israeli Seife.

The Nazis did however use the skin and hair of humans to make various products, said Krakoski.

Bauer said that the Nazis carried out many atrocities and there was no need to add false allegations to their already dark record.

The Yad Vashem website used photos of "human soap" 20 years after it was admitted as a fake.

The revisionists estimate that the number of victims combined from all the concentration camps is around 300.000 and 500.000. Of them, the half were jews.

Unlike the discredited "6.000.000", this number is based on a solid documentation, that included the reports published by the International Red Cross that inspected the concentration camps.

The the main cause of death was the epidemic of typhus and the hunger.

After decades of careful forensic investigation, scientific analysis and intense study, the revisionist academicians have placed the "gas chambers", "steam chambers", "conductive straps of electrocution", "chambers of asphyxiation", "devices pedalled to strike brains", "powder of Jewish bone used for the construction" and other silly things in the kingdom of the science fiction.

'Gas chambers' used in The United States to execute to prisoners condemned to death VS doors of the "chambers of gas" used in the concentration camps.

The chambers are not sealed hermetically and his doors are of wood, that is to say, that there had been constant escapes of lethal gas.

There is no sufficient ventilation. On an execution having be realized, a chamber one could not have ventilated with efficiency, to realize to the instant another execution, as affirm the testimonies.

The Zyklon B has reaction to the contact with the oxygen that marks the walls with gigantic spots of blue color Prussia, completely non-existent spots in the "homicidal completely visible chambers of gas", but in the chambers of disinfection where the clothes of the prisoners were fumigated.

Life danger! Do not open!" According to the official caption, "these chambers were used by Nazi guards for killing prisoners of the infamous Dachau concentration camp." In fact, this is a small disinfection gas chamber used for delousing clothes. It was never used to kill people. For several decades, this photo has been widely reproduced to help keep alive the notorious Dachau "gas chamber" myth. (US Army photo SC 206194.)*

DDT

Dichlorodiphenyltrichloroethane, commonly known as DDT, is a colorless, tasteless, and almost odorless crystalline chemical compound, an organochlorine, originally developed as an insecticide, and ultimately becoming infamous for its environmental impacts. First synthesized in 1874, DDT's insecticidal action was discovered by the Swiss chemist Paul Hermann Müller in 1939. DDT was used in the second half of World War II to control malaria and typhus among civilians and troops. Müller was awarded the Nobel Prize in Physiology or Medicine "for his discovery of the high efficiency of DDT as a contact poison against several arthropods" in 1948.

Though it is not in the habit of forming a part of Auschwitz's tour, to the visitors who discover it, it is said to them that this swimming pool is not really a swimming pool by no means, but rather a water tank to attack fires, which it was constructed in the form of a swimming pool. If it was true, one can wonder as what water tank for extinction of fires it would have steps and stairs that lead the same one, as well as springboards, blocks of take-off and decorative accessories. The swimming pool is clearly located where the prisoners had access to this, since we can see the fence perimetral of the right appears inward, and the prisoners' huts to the left side.

In an article from The Michigan Daily in 1955 it was claimed that the pool was really a mass grave.
